Background

After his banking apprenticeship at Deutsche Bank Düsseldorf Johannes Thoma started his studies of law at the University of Constance and after that a post graduated education at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. His doctor's thesis deals with the applicability of European competition law on state acts. Johannes Thoma started his career as a lawyer at bigger law-firms in Munich and Hamburg.

After that he moved back to his hometown Düsseldorf and worked for a couple of years at SKW Schwarz Rechtsanwälte and its various predecessor-units at the Düsseldorf office (Schwarz Kelving Wicke; Avocado, Arcon) as associate and then as partner.

At the beginning of 2011 he joined the law Reiners Rogge as its fifth founding partner. In September 2015 he founded the new partnership Schmidt Rogge Thoma Rechtsanwälte Partnerschaft mbB together with Michael Schmidt and Clemens Rogge and further five lawyers in order to join Schindhelm.

Expertise

Johannes Thoma advises and represents companies, shareholders und managing directors/managers in all areas of corporate law. One of his key issues is his advisory in the framework of structure measures und crisis-related restructuring measures. He also focuses on commercial law and distribution law.

His advisory in German and European cartel law is predominantly connected with his activities in corporate law and distribution law. In 2011 Johannes Thoma was appointed as Certified Lawyer Corporate Law and Commercial Law (Fachanwalt für Handels- und Gesellschaftsrecht). His commercial diploma in banking enables him to evaluate his clients' business from a business-man's point of view.
