Background

Ludwika Nawrot is a tax advisor. She has been working with SDZLEGAL Schindhelm since May 2022, representing clients in proceedings before tax authorities and administrative courts. In addition, she supports Polish and international companies from various sectors of the economy in tax matters. She is a frequent speaker at tax conferences and trainings, both open and dedicated to specific clients. She is a licensed tax advisor since 2018. Before joining SDZLEGAL Schindhelm, she gained experience in reputable law offices supporting clients during tax audits, customs and tax inspections, tax proceedings and proceedings before administrative courts. Moreover, she also has experience in ongoing tax consultancy.

Expertise

Ludwika Nawrot supports her clients during tax inspections, customs and fiscal audits, tax proceedings and proceedings before administrative courts.

She assists in drafting requests for individual interpretations by the Director of National Fiscal Information. In addition, she provides ongoing tax advice to Polish and foreign entities, including: preparing tax opinions and conducting tax reviews with respect to corporate income tax, personal income tax and value added tax. She advises on selecting the most advantageous business model. She has experience in due diligence projects aimed at mitigating tax risks in business operations.

She is interested in tax on trading in cryptocurrencies. In each case of providing advisory services, she strives to fully understand the client's needs and to select and implement the most effective solutions.
